

THE BLIGHT OF WAR.

Cuba Is Being Reduced to a Desolate Island.

RESIDENTS CRYING FOR PEACE.

Exports of Sugar and Tobacco Decreased to a Mere Nothing—The United States Will Not Recognize the Insurgents as Belligerents—Spain Says the War Must Go On—Other Cuban War News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Should Spain fail to crush out the Cuban insurrection, intervention by the United States, either alone or in conjunction with other powers, would be welcomed not only by the patriots, but by every resident of Cuba having the welfare of the island at heart. Even the Spanish residents, with the exception of a few men holding military or civil appointments under the crown, would be glad to see the war terminated by any means short of the humiliation of Spain.

The statistics of Cuba's trade with the United States afford a striking illustration of how this country has suffered from the war. General Weyler's order prohibiting the further export of tobacco called the attention of the world to the fact that this industry had been so nearly destroyed that the Cuban plantations were no longer able to supply more than was needed for consumption on the island. The importance of this single Cuban product is shown by the fact that the United States alone purchased Cuban tobacco and cigars to the amount of more than $10,000,000 annually.

Of even more importance, commercially, is the sugar product of Cuba. Its exportation has not been prohibited, but its production has practically ceased. The total imports of Cuban sugar for the first eight months of 1896 amounted to only $9,204,180, as against $30,249,194 for the first eight months of 1895.

The annual production of the island is about 1,000,000 tons.

Cuba is now a blighted country, and yet, under a proper government, with the enforcement of the law and the preservation of law guaranteed, there is scarcely a limit to her wealth. It is estimated by statisticians familiar with the natural resources of the island, that an annual export trade of more than $300,000,000 could be built up in a few years.

PATRIOTS MUST FIGHT ALONG.

The United States Government Will Not Recognize the Cuban Insurgents.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—It can be stated on good authority that there has been no change in the declared policy of the government with respect to Cuba, nor is any contemplated. As is well known the sympathies of the administration, as individuals, in a large measure, are with the insurgents, but if they gain their independence, it will be without any intervention, other than amicable on the part of Mr. Cleveland.

From the inception of the present difficulties in Cuba the administration has used all reasonable diligence in preventing the fitting out in this country of hostile expeditions against the Spanish authority in Cuba, and this vigilance will be continued to the end. The government has taken this course for the purpose of showing to the world that international law is held sacred in the United States, and also for the purpose of making it impossible for Spain to successfully prosecute any claims against the United States for damages growing out of filibustering expeditions, as might be the case were the officials less alert in preventing such expeditions, and in prosecuting offenders.

It can be stated also that the sending of the revenue cutter Winnow to sea with sealed orders has no special significance whatever beyond the purpose of the treasury department officials to keep secret from Cuban agents the movements of the revenue fleet. Hitherto Cuban agents in this country, through Cuban sympathizers, have managed to secure all necessary information regarding any contemplated movement, even in advance of our own officers, and as a result the purposes of the government have been defeated. This has occurred so often that the officials have determined to put a stop to it, as far as possible, by issuing sealed orders to the captains of revenue cutters, which orders are not to be opened until well at sea.

PASSED THE CENSORSHIP.

These Dispatches Permitted to Be Sent Out by General Weyler.

HAVANA, Oct. 21.—The supreme court of war and marine has ordered the preparation of new cases against the crew of the American schooner Competitor, who will now be tried before an ordinary marine court martial. The preliminary steps have already been taken. Laborer, the commander of the schooner, and Melton, the American newspaper correspondent, will be tried in accordance with the provisions of the treaty of 1821.

Consul General Leo is in good health and the report circulated by La Lucia in a dispatch from Washington to the effect that the general had asked to be recalled, is classed untrue.

Four boats marked "Three Friends" have been found on the beach south of Jaruque, province of Santa Clara.

During the month of September there were 20,293 sick persons in the hospitals, of which number 1,082 died from different causes, 744 died of yellow fever and 23 died from wounds received in fighting the insurgents.

How the Home Government Is Deceived.

MADRID, Oct. 21.—The shipment of 25,000 reinforcements to Cuba will begin early in November.

A dispatch from Havana to The Imparcial says that in the recent fighting in Pinar del Rio province, Maceo lost a number of officers, including his chief supporters. His men, the dispatch says, are split up and wandering about the country without camps and without food.

War Must Go On.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A dispatch from Madrid says Senor Canovas, the premier, declares that the statement that Spain will abandon Cuba unless the war is concluded in March is false and ridiculous. The premier adds that nothing could exceed the loyal conduct of President Cleveland and his cabinet toward Spain.

SENATOR MORRILL RE-ELECTED.

A Very Important Event Takes Place in Vermont's State House.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Oct. 21.—Justin S. Morrill of Strafford was re-elected United States senator from Vermont yesterday afternoon.

In the senate no other name was presented and Senator Morrill received the entire 30 votes.

In the house Mr. Morrill received 213 votes and Herbert F. Brigham of Bakerfield, Democratic candidate, received 17.

In the joint assembly this afternoon Senator Morrill's election will be formally made.

SENATOR MORRILL.

This honor paid to Senator Morrill by his native state is an incident of more than usual interest. When on the 4th of March next he is formally inducted into the office which he has filled for 30 years, he will commence a term which bids fair to break all records of membership in the national senate. Mr. Morrill is 86 years of age.

WORK OF SALVATION.

Uniformed Evangelist Army of the Episcopal Church.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The Herald says: The Protestant Episcopal church of the United States is about to organize an army of uniformed evangelists, who will be under military discipline and compete with the Salvation Army and the American Volunteers in the field of Christian work among the poor.

This important project was decided on at a meeting of prominent clergymen from different parts of the country held in the church missions house. The matter came up for consideration some time ago before the Parochial Missions society. A committee of this representative body was appointed to investigate the army project. The investigating committee's report was read and recommended the adoption of the army scheme. A committee was appointed and it will at once proceed to make details of the organization.

The plan will include the best features of the Salvation Army and of the church army of England, from which the former organization sprang. Uniformed corps of trained evangelists, under military discipline, will be stationed in different cities. These men will preach in the streets, and be aided by bands of music. The work ultimately will include the erection of laborers' homes and lodging houses for men and rescue houses for fallen women.

LAST TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Funeral Services Over the Remains of the Late Henry E. Abbey.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Funeral services over the late Henry E. Abbey, the theatrical manager, were held yesterday in the church of the Paulist Fathers, which was crowded with friends and acquaintances of the dead man who had assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of the dead.

Among the pallbearers were: A. M. Palmer, Augustin Daly, D. O. Mills and Walter Damrosch.

Many people connected with the dramatic profession were present; also representatives of the Elks and other social organizations.

The chief mourner was Mr. Abbey's young daughter, Miss Kittie Abbey.

The body, after the services, was taken to the Grand Central station and conveyed in a private car to Auburndale, Mass., where Mr. Abbey's first wife and son are buried.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The Constantinople correspondent of The Morning Post says: "It is officially known here that Mr. Terrell, the United States minister, has not for the last 10 months mentioned to the porte the passage of a guardship through the Dardanelles. In fact cordial relations exist between the United States and Turkey."

LAKE VESSEL SUNK.

All on Board Have Probably Been Lost.

PART OF THE WRECKAGE FOUND.

The Name of the Boat Could Not Be Ascertained, Only Its Spar Being Seen—A Dream Verified, Albert J. Frantz Indicted For Bessie Little's Murder—Other Ohio State News.

SANDUSKY, O., Oct. 21.—Intelligence has just reached this city from Locust Point that a vessel foundered in the lake off that point some time last week. Last Thursday, as Captain Cleaver and a crew of fishermen were near their grounds they notice a lot of wreckage. With the aid of a glass, the captain and his crew say they were able to see a spar projecting from the vessel some distance away. On going to it they found that a vessel had been sunk, and the captain is of the opinion that it was a steamer.

There was nothing in sight by which the name of the boat could be ascertained, and no information has been received from any source that a boat has been lost, but it is certain that a vessel has gone down at that point, and undoubtedly with all on board.

DREAM VERIFIED.

A Cleveland Woman Foretold Her Son's Sudden Death.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21.—Mrs. Johnson of this city recently discovered that her son, Edwin Jones, and her daughter, whom she lost 18 years ago, were in Indianapolis, living in Cornell street. The son was a postal employee. She went to Indianapolis and found him ill. She returned to Cleveland after seeing him.

A few nights ago she dreamed that her son was dead. She says she could see him in the coffin and people were draping the house with mourning. She was so impressed that she wrote to Indianapolis that day. A letter came saying that the son died the night before her dream.

MINERS ARE IDLE.

When the Whistle Blew No One Reported at the Shaft.

GLOUCESTER, O., Oct. 21.—The whistle blew for work at Mine 10 yesterday morning, but no one reported at the shaft. All the mines are idle and one miner will not work unless all work.

A mass meeting was held here yesterday, and the prospect is that the men may accept the 45-cent rate for the present. There is, however, very strong opposition to accepting the scale, which means starvation wages, and many men will hunt work at other places. Both operators and miners are anxiously awaiting the outcome.

BESSIE LITTLE'S SLAYER.

Albert J. Frantz Indicted by the Grand Jury For First Degree Murder.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 21.—The grand jury ended its investigation of the cruel murder of Bessie Little, and in the particular report which was made public at noon an indictment was returned against Albert J. Frantz. The indictment charges murder in the first degree.

Frantz is still confined in the jail, where he has spent a good deal of his time reading his Bible. He made no expression when he was told that the grand jury had returned a true bill.

Frantz' trial will be set for the coming term of court.

Stove Works Destroyed.

AKRON, O., Oct. 21.—The largest fire that has visited Akron since the Schumacher mills were burned several years ago, occurred here at midnight last night when the stove works of the Whitmore and Robinson company were completely destroyed. The loss will be $200,000, and the insurance half as much. The company was capitalized for $150,000.

Insane Instead of a Murderer.

MANSFIELD, O., Oct. 21.—In the case against Miss Celia Rose, on trial here for having caused the death of her father, mother and brother, with poison, the jury, after being out on hour, brought in a verdict acquitting the accused, on the ground of insanity. She will probably be adjudged insane and sent to an asylum.

Printing Office Burned.

BELLAIRE, O., Oct. 21.—Fire destroyed the Belmont Printing company's office and Squire F. O. Mason's office here at an early hour yesterday morning. Loss, $3,000; cause unknown.

An Old Lady's Mishaps.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 21.—Mrs. Columbus Delano, wife of the ex-secretary of the interior, fell yesterday and broke her hip. She is old and ill and the mishap may prove fatal.

ONLY WOMEN ELIGIBLE.

The United States Government Wants an Assistant Microscopist.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The United States civil service commission will hold an examination at the postoffice in Boston, Indianapolis and Chicago on Oct. 30 for the position of assistant microscopist.

The salary of the position is $600 per annum and only women above the age of 20 will be admitted to the examination. The subjects of the examination are as follows: Orthography, penmanship, copying, letter writing and arithmetic. It is desirable that applicants should have a knowledge of the use of the microscope.

Tiptoe Mill Starts Up.

WABASH, Ind., Oct. 21.—The big tiptoe mill of the Morewood company, at Gate City, has resumed after a long idleness. The intention was to remain closed until after the election, but the company had too many orders. The men in the shearing department are still on a strike. Their places will be taken by improved machinery.

NOT LOST, BUT WRECKED.

Two Lumber-Laden Schooners, Long Overdue, Reach Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—Two lumber-laden schooners who were believed by their owners to have been wrecked during the recent storm, with their entire crews, numbering in all 13 men, came into port yesterday both with loss of deck loads and sails and one with cabins flooded, and kept afloat only by the buoyancy of her cargo.

The experience had by these two vessels, the Eva A. Danenhower, Captain Richards, from Jacksonville, Oct. 1, and the Mary H. Brockaway, Captain Magee, from Ferdinandina, Oct. 2, was thrilling, and no narrower escape from total destruction has been reported for years.

The Danenhower experienced the full force of the storm to the southward of Cape Hatteras and ran before it under bare poles, with the sea leaping must-head high over her. One sea lifted up and carried overboard her entire cargo of lumber.

Captain Richards says that the storm was even more severe than those ashore anticipated, and he believes the loss of life and property has been enormous. He says the Atlantic is strewn with wreckage and crippled vessels.

The Mary H. Brockaway was hoisted in the great gale for 72 hours with seas completely smothering her. It was a perilous time and the deck load of lumber was lifted from its lashings and carried overboard.

ALBERT DOWNEN'S CONFESSION.

He Says He Committed Murders and Many Robberies.

DENVER, Oct. 21.—Albert Henry Downen, a man 45 years of age, has been arrested by the city detectives for highway robbery. A search of his rooms has revealed a large amount of booty, and the prisoner has confessed to fully 50 "hold-ups" in the suburbs of this city, as well as to the murder here of one man, Joel Ashworth, and a man and woman in California.

He says he served 17 years in the California penitentiary for stage robbery and grand larceny, but was never arrested for the murder.

The Ashworth murder here was committed in June last, and has ever since baffled the police department. Downen says he is going to plead guilty to murder, and wants to be hanged rather than serve more time in the penitentiary.

NO TOLL GATES.

The Unique War in Kentucky Strikes Another County.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 21.—The war on toll gates began in this county Sunday night, the Peaks Mill toll gate being demolished by unknown parties. Monday night raiders made a concerted move on four more gates, which were destroyed.

The raiders went about their work quietly, and so far as can be learned no particular disorder attended it. The poles were removed and in some instances cut to pieces. Messages were left at some of the gates warning the keepers that if they were replaced the raiders would again visit and burn them.

The county voted free turnpikes last year, but owing to delay in the county acquiring the stock in these roads, the law does not yet apply to them.

VAN MASSACRE CONFIRMED.

Not an Armenian Left in the Entire District.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A Berlin dispatch to The Daily News says: "The St. Petersburg Videmosti gives details of the Van massacre secured from fugitives who have arrived at Elchmidzin. They declare that no Armenians are left in the Van district. The Kurds, declaring that they were executing the sultan's will, mercilessly butchered the men, kidnapped the prettiest women and girls and threw the children into the pits intended for storing corn and buried them alive in order to save ammunition.

"The victims were arranged in rows and were killed, two or three at a single shot.

"The details of the outrages on the priests and temples and the sacred books and vessels are indescribably revolting."

PROTECTED BY THE MILITIA.

Miners From Missouri Take the Places of the Strikers at Leadville.

LEADVILLE, Colo., Oct. 21.—Considerable uneasiness was caused here yesterday by the arrival of 125 more miners from Missouri. The militia met the miners at the depot and escorted them to the various mines where their services had been engaged. About 1,000 people were gathered at the depot when the train arrived and jeered the Missouri men.

Prosecuting Attorney Dickson asked Judge Owens to quash the cases against the miners charged with having been implicated in the Coronado riots, which resulted in the death of Fireman O'Keefe. After considering the cases until late in the day, Judge Owens declined to interfere.

TWELVE DROWNED.

Coal Steamer Driven on the Rocks Off the Pacific Coast.

SHE WILL BE A TOTAL LOSS.

Four of the Number of Persons Drowned Were Passengers and the Other Eight Belonged to the Crew—The Accident Occurred During a Heavy Fog—A Partial List of Those That Were Lost.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Oct. 21.—The steamer Arago, owned by the Oregon Coal and Navigation company, from Coos Bay for San Francisco, was carried by the current and driven on the rocks of the jetty at Coos Head yesterday. She will be a total loss. In attempting to land a boatload of passengers and crew, the boat was capsized. Twelve were drowned, four passengers and eight of the crew, of which the following is a partial list.

E. M. McGraw of Coquill City, passenger.

John Norman of Marshfield, passenger.

Richard Walters of Oakland, passenger.

Of the ship's crew the drowned are: M. P. Whittle of San Francisco, fireman.

Eric Wall of San Francisco, fireman.

Richard Patterson of San Francisco, steward.

A. Fernandez, chief cook.

W. E. Byrnes, chief engineer.

J. Kuger, sailor.

Harry Sanders, sailor.

The accident occurred during a heavy fog. What is left of the steamer to be seen is two spars projecting upon the ocean beach.

The survivors were brought to Empire City on the tug Columbia.

None of the bodies lost were recovered.

The Arago was built by the Union Iron works in 1885. Her gross tonnage is placed at 947 tons. The craft has long been in the coasting trade and is one of the best known boats in this port. Of late years she has been engaged as a collier, carrying coal from Coos Bay ports to this city. She was commanded by Captain Reed. Her full complement of men and officers was 26.

At this season of the year Coos Bay bar, as it is known, is usually not very rough, though at times, if the wind is in the right quarter, the seas roll high. During October and November it is very difficult to tell just how the bar may act and navigators approach the entrance to the bay with more or less trepidation.

Before jetties were constructed Coos Bay had gained the reputation of being one of the worst bars on the coast, not excluding the once treacherous entrance to Humboldt bay. The improvements of the harbor, however, have reduced the dangers that once existed.

ENGLAND HAS NO CLAIM.

An Honest Englishman's View of the Venezuelan Boundary Question.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Sir Edward Clarke, Q. C., Conservative, formerly solicitor general and member of parliament for Plymouth, referring to the adverse criticisms of his recent speech on the Venezuelan question at York, in which he said that "No honest and impartial arbitrator or commission could decide in favor of England's claims upon the evidence," has written a letter to the Associated Press upon the subject. He says:

"The speech was deliberately made in the belief, which I still entertain, that it will be of public service and was, of course, made after a full study of all the documents officially published on the subject."

SHOT HIS DIVORCED WIFE.

A Worthless Character Attempts Murder and Kills Himself.

St. Louis, Oct. 21.—In a fit of jealous rage, supplemented by copious indulgence in liquor, William Huttering, a worthless character, shot and wounded his divorced wife, Mary Kerstings, or Kusten, and then committed suicide at the house of William Fox, a mutual friend.

Mrs. Kerstings, or Kusten, has a husband at Peoria, Ill., and was here caring for her invalid mother. The injured woman was taken to the city hospital, where it is not thought she will die, as the bullet, which struck her head, did not enter the brain.

Labor Leader Found Dead.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Robert T. Swallow, a well known labor leader, was found dead in the headquarters of the county Democracy, La Salle street, yesterday. The gas, though not burning, was turned on full force. It is believed that he committed suicide, but no one is aware of his having troubles which could lead to such a result. He was elected to a position on the executive committee of the club a few weeks ago.

KILLED BY CIGARETTES.

The "King of the Huns" Smoked One Hundred a Day.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Edmund C. Browne, "King of the Huns," and collaborator of Editor Stead in his book, "If Christ Came to Chicago," is dead in Mercy hospital. He was taken there Saturday night, suffering from alcoholism, his old enemy, and he also had a slight touch of pneumonia.

His friends, however, say that his death was due to nicotine poisoning. For many years he had smoked 100 cigarettes a day, and it is this, they aver, that killed him.

 Congress,
W. LARUE THOMAS,
 of Mason.

LARUE THOMAS has made a gallant fight. If we all do our part his calling and election is assured.

Of course the cigarmakers are all going to throw up their hats and help Bradley carry Kentucky for McKinley. Nit.

The Public Ledger has so far failed to give a comparison of the wages paid in the United States and in gold standard European countries. Editor Davis knows that would flatly contradict his talk about wages in Mexico and other silver countries.

The series of joint debates between Mr. Thomas and Judge Pugh closed Monday at Catlettsburg. A few more dates may be arranged. They have met in every county in the district, we believe, and we are strongly of the opinion the returns on November 3d will show that Mr. Thomas has gotten the best of his opponent, decidedly.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY and his fellow Republicans didn't know that penitentiary cigar factory project was loaded, but it is. The Central Labor Union, of Louisville, composed of the various organizations of that kind in the Falls City, at a meeting Sunday, adopted resolutions strongly denouncing the project. Committees were appointed to fight it.

"Misery in Mexico," is the way some of the papers headline the report of the labor committee sent to that country from Chicago to report as to the condition of the working classes down there and the wages paid them. A comparison of the wages paid in some of the mills shows that employes in similar lines of work in this country receive no more than the employes do down in Mexico, and yet these poor unfortunates in this country are paraded about under McKinley banners and made to believe that their work hereafter and their wages depend upon his election.

PIGHS ON THE RIX.

And He's falling on the Big "Guns" at Frankfort to Help Him Out.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 19.—The Republicans are evidently preparing to center a great deal of strength in the Ninth Congressional district for the remainder of the campaign. The silver Democrats have recently been more ready to bet on Larue Thomas' defeat of Congressman Pugh than upon the election of any other nominee this side of the First district. The Republicans believe that Pugh can win and are preparing to help him.

State Treasurer Long left here this morning for the scene, and will make a number of speeches there before he returns. Attorney General Taylor left for the same district to-night, and also has a long list of appointments.

Miss MYRA DUKE, who has been ill several days, is much better and improving.

A foul breath is one of the greatest afflictions that a man or woman can have. An affliction not only to themselves, but to those with whom they come in contact. A foul breath is a great discourager of affection. It would probably be more so if people only realized just what bad breath means. Bad breath is one of the symptoms of constipation. Some of the other symptoms are sour stomach, loss of appetite, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, heartburn and distress after eating. These things mean indigestion. They lead to dyspepsia and worse things. They all start with constipation, and constipation is inexcusable because it can be cured—easily, quickly and permanently, by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They give to nature just the little help that she needs. There is no case of biliousness, constipation, indigestion, "heartburn," or any of the rest of the night-mare breeding brood, that these little "Pellets" will not cure.

Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1088 page Common Sense Medical Adviser, illustrated.

Mothers Your Carpet Trade

Anxiously watch declining health of their daughters. So many are cut off by consumption in early years that there is real cause for anxiety. In the early stages, when not beyond the reach of medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore the quality and quantity of the blood and thus give good health. Read the following letter:

"It is but just to write about my daughter Cora, aged 19. She was completely run down, declining, had that tired feeling, and friends said she would not live over three months. She had a bad Cough and nothing seemed to do her any good. I happened to read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and had her give it a trial. From the very first dose she began to get better. After taking a few bottles she was completely cured and her health has been the best ever since." MRS. ADDIE PECK, 12 Railroad Place, Amsterdam, N. Y.

"I will say that my mother has not stated my case in as strong words as I would have done. Hood's Sarsaparilla has truly cured me and I am now well." CORA PECK, Amsterdam, N. Y.

FORMER REPUBLICANS.

Three Hundred In One Delegation Attend a Democratic Meeting in Indiana.

[Bedford Ind.) Democrat.]

There was a Democrat's rally and speaking at Worthington Thursday that must have been an eye-opener for the Republicans of Green County, according to a gentleman who came in from Bloomfield Thursday evening. The meeting was attended by delegations from all over the county.

From the southern part, probably from the neighborhood of Lyons, there were two large wagons drawn by a traction engine and in the wagons were an even hundred Republicans who have declared that they will this year vote for Bryan and free silver. Just before they got into Worthington, our informant tells us, they were joined by another delegation of 200 former Republicans on horseback, all wearing Bryan badges and all enthusiastic for free coinage.

It is but an indication of what the feeling is among the farmers and workingmen throughout Indiana. The same condition exists in nearly every county, though in many, like Lawrence, it is unorganized. But the votes will go in for Bryan just the same. It is the peoples' fight against organized greed and the people will win because they deserve to win.

BLOODHOUNDS TRACKED HIM.

A Negro Suspected of Burning Houses in Bracken County Fled When the Dogs Approached.

Mention was made Monday of the burning of a house and barn belonging to Americus Weaver, of Bracken County.

Monday morning James Campbell, of Hillsboro, put his bloodhounds on the trail of the fiend who fired the building. Amid the greatest excitement the dog followed the trail to the house of Henry Green, colored, who was suspected of the crime.

When Green heard the dogs approaching he jumped on his horse and rode away toward the Ohio river at breakneck speed, and his whereabouts are unknown, as no attempt had been made to arrest him or locate him at last accounts.

WELL! WELL!!

Now Let Republicans Quit Talking About Fifty-Cent Dollars.

Read What They Said in '92 and '94 on the Subject of Free Silver—It Was All Right Then.

[Portsmouth Times.]

The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bimetalism, and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money.—Republican Platform, 1892.

What a mighty change has occurred in the beliefs and arguments of the Republican party on the silver question within four short years. Their campaign literature of 1892 contains the most powerful reasons that can be advanced to-day for the restoration of the free coinage of silver.

In 1892 the principal text book of the Republican party was entitled "The Grand Old Party—Lincoln, Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, Harrison; It is True to the Flag." This book was officially sanctioned by the Republican National Committee, and 3,000,000 copies of the work were distributed by the committee throughout the United States. Here is one extract from this text book; it is found on page 52:

If every voter in the United States were called upon to-day to declare whether he desired the use of silver as well as gold in our monetary system, certainly as many as 90 votes out of every 100 would answer in the affirmative, and an equal proportion would favor such legislation as tended directly to bring about the free and unlimited coinage of both metals, if they believed the two metals could be maintained at par.

This sentiment to-day would be characterized by the Republican party as the wild utterance of a silver fanatic if it had not appeared under its own sanction so recently. Yet, it was the accurate utterance of the Republican party at that time. What influence can have caused repudiation of the sentiment in so short a period unless it is that of the Rothschilds, the Morgans, the Belmonts, the bond syndicates? At the dictation of these men the Republicans are now spending millions of dollars to undo the work they did in 1892, and during many previous years of the party's existence.

Here is another quotation from this same text book:

Until the year 1873 the United States coined both gold and silver freely in unlimited quantities; that is, you could take it to the mints of the United States and receive for it a fixed, unvarying price; but in 1873, by the omission of the silver dollar from the coinage law prescribing the silver coins of the United States to be thereafter coined, and by the limitation of the legal tender of silver to $5, silver was in effect demonetized, and it has never since been restored fully to the position it held in the earlier coinage system of this country. There has been much irrelevant controversy as to whether this was done intentionally, and after full discussion, or accidentally, so far as the majority of Congress were concerned, and by the artful trick of certain persons interested in bragging about a gold standard. Such a controversy serves no useful purpose. At that time both silver and gold were at a large premium, specie payments not having been resumed, and paper money was the only currency. The important fact, however, is that silver was demonetized, and it is of little service in considering how it was done.

If the foregoing statement was true in 1892, is it not true to-day? What has caused it to be a lie now, as the Republicans claim? Didn't they know what they were saying in 1892, or don't they know what they mean now? Is it not evident that some mighty influence has been brought to bear to cause the change in attitude toward silver, and that gold is that influence?

The Republican text book further says: The unlimited coinage of both metals had prevailed from the foundation of the government until that date, and yet on June 30, 1873, there had been a total coinage of $1,011,938,557 of gold and only $102,125,070 of silver. Unlimited silver had not meant the debasement of the currency. The scarcity of the metal and its free employment as money by all nations except England had given it a value in comparison with gold that removed all risk of its free use in our coinage.

There is a grave danger in the unqualified adoption of the gold standard. For, as silver has been taken out of Europe's coinage, the demand for gold has enormously grown, and grown in a proportion much greater than the supply. Measuring both metals by the standard of commodities, it is substantially true to say that gold has appreciated more than silver has depreciated. In the silver-using countries silver will buy almost as much of everything, except gold, as it would ten or a dozen years ago, and this fact sustains the demand for "cheaper" money. The advocates of the gold standard allege that the value of gold is intrinsic, and that a certain quantity of gold bullion having a fixed value should be the standard of exchange. This would be all well enough if anybody were able to insure that the supply would continually increase in ratio with the increasing demand for it caused by growing population and commerce, but, as a matter of fact, it is decreasing in that ratio, and therefore a man who ten years ago contracted a debt which might then have been discharged with 1,000 bushels of wheat, to-day must pay many more than 1,000 bushels of wheat to get himself free. Just as it is true to say that the silver dollar, which was exchanged on an equality with gold fifteen years ago is now worth but 80 cents in gold, so it is true to say that an amount of wheat that would exchange fifteen years ago for a gold dollar is worth much less to-day.

Four years ago the Republican text-book said, it will be observed, that "gold had appreciated more than silver has depreciated." To-day they deny that gold has appreciated at all. Four years ago they claimed that the reason the farmer could not get more for his wheat was because of the appreciation in the value of money. To-day they argue that the production and demand for the wheat are the only things having anything to do with the price. Let the farmer and the merchant who find their stock and their goods constantly depreciating in value consider the forgoing, and see what is the cause for it. The text-book goes on:

The meaning of this is clear. The capitalist can increase his wealth by simply converting it into gold, putting it in a vault and holding it idle for a series of years. At the end of ten years it will buy more provisions and more labor than it would when he stored it. AS THE SUPPLY OF GOLD CONTRACTS, EVERYBODY MUST WORK HARDER TO GET IT.

It is plain that the debtor is entitled to discharge his obligations for a value precisely similar to that he originally obtained. He can not do this if the money in which his loan is compulsorily payable increases between the date of its making and the date of its payment. Measured in gold, all obligations have thus increased in a very short period of time. The creditor class enjoys, therefore, a vast advantage over the debtor class. THE MEN WHO WORK FOR THEIR LIVING AND CONSUME THEIR EARNINGS YEAR BY YEAR ARE PLACED IN A MOST UNFAIR POSITION.

Has there been a single argument advanced by the opponents of the gold standard this year which is stronger than that contained in this extract from the Republican text-book of four years ago? It is precisely the argument used by silver men to-day, and which is denounced by the Republicans as "delusive" and "anarchistic." This Republican text-book of 1892 might well be circulated with advantage to the Democrats in this year, 1896.

But even later than four years ago Republican text-books contained good arguments for free silver. On page 146 of the Republican Congressional campaign book of 1894 is the following paragraph:

European silver could not be dumped into our mints with profit to the foreign owners. The silver of Europe is coined at a ratio of 15 to 1, whereas American coinage is at a ratio of 16 to 1, and as the bulk of European silver has already been in use many years it has probably lost 3 per cent. by abrasion. Here is a dead loss of 6 per cent. on every dollar's worth of European silver to be dumped on this country, to which there must be added freight and insurance. But this is not all. The European coins could not be offered to our mints. The one-tenth alloy which they contain would have to be extracted, a loss of 10 per cent. and the extraction would cost another 5 per cent. making a loss and cost of not less than 22 cents before the dump reached our mints. The total loss on every dollar's worth of European silver brought over here being not less than 32 cents to put it in other shape, foreign speculators in order to dump European silver on our mints would be compelled to sell for 68 cents the silver that cost them 100 cents in gold.

There is no reason why any Republican should hesitate to vote for Bryan and free silver, when he has such evidence before him that his party has abandoned its principles and beliefs.

Business Transacted by the Board of Directors at Their Meeting Last Monday Afternoon.

The Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. met Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, every member save three being present; President Wm. H. Cox in the chair. We feel very sure no citizen will tire of reading the proceedings of this board, because from its councils are to proceed those salutary measures and beneficent influences which shall go far towards raising the tone of moral life among the young men in our midst. After the usual preliminary proceedings that characterize such institutions, the business proper was brought up, and dispatched in a wise way which shows how heartily interested are the men who make up this board.

A summary of its actions may enlighten some. The Membership Committee's list of members for the board's ratification was received and adopted, the first list containing some seventy names of young men. Others are being received daily so that when the new quarters are reached the full quota, it is expected, will be in.

The Treasurer's report shows a goodly sum to the credit of the institution; the pledged subscriptions are being paid, which facts are very helpful to the management and very encouraging to the board.

The other committees report activity as characterizing their doings and when the time arrives for their showing most splendid results will follow.

A very important motion was adopted whereby the General Secretary is empowered to appoint a woman's committee to assist in beautifying the new rooms and to help in their way to make the building home-like, cheery and most charming, to see to the social receptions and other such work. In other cities similar committees have done magnificent service, and we are sure our Maysville women will vie with them in doing valiant work for the Y. M. C. A.

The General Secretary was authorized to go to Russell, Ky., to represent Maysville's Y. M. C. A. at the opening of the railroad Y. M. C. A. building which the C. and O. has equipped at that point.

Much other work was accomplished, and enthusiasm exists in the board for the good of this cause.

Small Crowd.

Mr. E. B. Willhoit, the Palmer and Buckner nominee for district elector, spoke at Mt. Olivet Tuesday afternoon. Not to exceed twenty people turned out to hear him. While on his way out, he met many people coming from Mt. Olivet to Sardinia to hear the eloquent A. O. Stanley talk free silver. Stanley was greeted by a big crowd.

Other Irish national societies will also be represented on the general reception committee, and as much will be made of him as was made of the other unfortunate wrecks of a British prison, Gallagher and Murphy.

Was Schnaubelt's Brother.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Oct. 21.—Herman B. Schnaubelt, a brother of Rudolph Schnaubelt, the man who threw the bomb in Haymarket square, Chicago, died here yesterday of consumption. Schnaubelt came to California about nine years ago and settled on a ranch in Regua del Norte county. He was a quiet, unassuming person, and so far as can be learned, was never known to talk anarchy.

AN UNHAPPY CHILD.

A Nine-Year-Old Orphan Boy Shoots Himself With a Pistol.

WHITING, Ind., Oct. 21.—James Humphrey, the 9-year-old son of John Humphrey, who has been missing for four weeks, was found dead in the bushes near a saloon on the outskirts of town by Fred Fentensberg. The body was badly decomposed and was recognized only by the clothing worn. There was a bullet hole in the head and a revolver lay by the side of the body, indicating that death was self-inflicted.

Some months ago the child was taken from the children's home in Chicago and adopted by Mr. Humphrey. Last spring he ran away from here and was found near Lincoln park, Chicago, having walked the entire distance to get back to his old home. The little fellow demurred against being sent back to his foster parents, but was returned here and lived with them till about a month ago, when he ran from the house and was not seen again alive.

DON'T WANT TO BE WOODED.

A Telegraph Operator Appeals to the Law For Protection.

KNIGHTSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 21.—Arthur Walton, telegraph operator at Harmony, caused a commission to be appointed to pass upon the mental soundness of Miss Jennie Frazer, 30 years old, a close neighbor, who had shown a decided preference for him despite all discouragements. Walton alleged that his life was in danger, the young woman having frequently threatened to kill him, and had also threatened young women whose company he sought, and he was supported in his allegations by several witnesses.

Two physicians subjected her to a close examination, and the answers which she returned satisfied them that she was not wholly insane, and that she was not a fit subject for restraint. The commission was divided, one squire believing her mind to be affected, while the other thought the contrary.

A Handsome Home Destroyed.

BRAZIL, Ind., Oct. 21.—The magnificent home of G. W. Moore, the miller of Knightsville, a suburb of this city, was burned at an early hour yesterday morning. It is presumed that the flames originated from a defect in the furnace, and the building and contents were destroyed in the absence of the family. It was one of the finest houses in the county, being built recently by E. F. Sigler, the coal magnate. The loss is about $10,000; insurance, $4,300.

Murder Trial Postponed.

ENGLISHTOWN, Ind., Oct. 21.—The trial of William Graff, indicted for the murder of August C. Striegle, which occurred at Schnellville on the 26th of last July, has been postponed until the December term. The defendant is but 20 years old. The dead man was 35 years old and a man of family. The quarrel originated over the kind of a dance to follow on the program, Striegle wanting a "square" dance, while Graff preferred a waltz.

He Gets a New Trial.

ALBANY, Oct. 21.—The court of appeals handed down a decision in which they grant ex-inspector McLaughlin of the New York police force a new trial and allow him to move for a change of venue. McLaughlin was one of the officials investigated by the Lexow committee. He was tried and convicted of accepting bribes.

Secure the Peace of the World.

MELBOURNE, Oct. 21.—Lord Brazey, the governor of Victoria, in a speech yesterday on imperial federation, said: "It would be wise, if possible, to bring America into a grand, defensive league of the Anglo-Saxon races, which would effectively secure the peace of the world."

Heavy Damage Claim Cut Down.

PORTLAND, Ind., Oct. 21.—The jury in the case of John W. Thomas and 40 other residents of Pennville against the Pennville Natural Gas company, where the plaintiffs claimed $50,000 damages for alleged breach of contract, returned a verdict yesterday for $1,750.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
